February is an interesting month for restaurants. There are so many dates to celebrate — all they have to do is to think up special delicacies for each of them! St. Valentine’s Day (14 February), Defender of the Fatherland Day (23 February), Chinese New Year (8 February)...

It is a well-known fact that Russians need little excuse for a celebration, and that can only be to the benefit of restaurateurs...

Dmitry Vasilev

February — interesting time. There are lovely dates in the calendar, are there? Little special dates to organize festive celebrations — and on Valentine’s Day, and on Defender of the Fatherland Day, and on Chinese New Year...

It would be most correct to celebrate Chinese New Year in an authentic Chinese restaurant, so that you can be sure that everything is genuine. A good choice would be the new “Veter Kitaya” (Китай Wind) restaurant (54 Bolshaya Morskaya ul. T: 385 1292). Head chef Ma Zhi is preparing a special menu for 9 February, to be accompanied by a sparkling cabaret show.

To that end, the new restaurant (“China Wind”) will be open on 9 February...
On 14 February, Tandoor is featuring another non-typical celebratory event — the presentation of the new “Night Rajah” game (based on the popular “ Mafia” game, but with an Indian flavour). Men can take part in the game on their special day without paying an entrance fee. Space, needless to say, will be limited.

The Erarta Cafe (29th Line, V.O. T. 334 6896) is offering a set of its homemade éclairs on 14 February with five flavours: mango, caramel, pistachio, vanilla and blackcurrant) at the special price of 850 roubles. Live jazz can be heard in the evening.

Several special offers will be available during the month at the “VinoVeka” bar-oenotheque (5 Kazansky Ul., T: 929 8298). From 7 to 14 February, a “warm-up” for Valentine’s Day, there will be a 20% discount on all rose wines, and on the day itself — a complimentary semifreddo dessert made to an original recipe. And on 23 February customers will receive a complimentary glass of wine when ordering any main course.

In a break from tradition, the musical accompaniment will be French and played on an accordion. The menu, in turn, will include some secret new delicacies with aphrodisiac ingredients (head chef Ravat Kushal). Incidentally, on 23 February “Tandoor” is offering a set of its homemade éclairs with five flavours: mango, caramel, pistachio, vanilla and blackcurrant) at the special price of 850 roubles.

Several special offers will be available during the month at the “VinoVeka” bar-oenotheque (5 Kazansky Ul., T: 929 8298). From 7 to 14 February, a “warm-up” for Valentine’s Day, there will be a 20% discount on all rose wines, and on the day itself — a complimentary semifreddo dessert made to an original recipe. And on 23 February customers will receive a complimentary glass of wine when ordering any main course.

On 14 February, Tandoor is featuring another non-typical celebratory event — the presentation of the new “Night Rajah” game (based on the popular “Mafia” game, but with an Indian flavour). Men can take part in the game on their special day without paying an entrance fee. Space, needless to say, will be limited.

The Erarta Cafe (29th Line, V.O. T. 334 6896) is offering a set of its homemade éclairs on 14 February with five flavours: mango, caramel, pistachio, vanilla and blackcurrant) at the special price of 850 roubles. Live jazz can be heard in the evening.

Several special offers will be available during the month at the “VinoVeka” bar-oenotheque (5 Kazansky Ul., T: 929 8298). From 7 to 14 February, a “warm-up” for Valentine’s Day, there will be a 20% discount on all rose wines, and on the day itself — a complimentary semifreddo dessert made to an original recipe. And on 23 February customers will receive a complimentary glass of wine when ordering any main course.

In a break from tradition, the musical accompaniment will be French and played on an accordion. The menu, in turn, will include some secret new delicacies with aphrodisiac ingredients (head chef Ravat Kushal). Incidentally, on 23 February “Tandoor” is offering a set of its homemade éclairs with five flavours: mango, caramel, pistachio, vanilla and blackcurrant) at the special price of 850 roubles.

Several special offers will be available during the month at the “VinoVeka” bar-oenotheque (5 Kazansky Ul., T: 929 8298). From 7 to 14 February, a “warm-up” for Valentine’s Day, there will be a 20% discount on all rose wines, and on the day itself — a complimentary semifreddo dessert made to an original recipe. And on 23 February customers will receive a complimentary glass of wine when ordering any main course.

On 14 February, Tandoor is featuring another non-typical celebratory event — the presentation of the new “Night Rajah” game (based on the popular “Mafia” game, but with an Indian flavour). Men can take part in the game on their special day without paying an entrance fee. Space, needless to say, will be limited.

The Erarta Cafe (29th Line, V.O. T. 334 6896) is offering a set of its homemade éclairs on 14 February with five flavours: mango, caramel, pistachio, vanilla and blackcurrant) at the special price of 850 roubles. Live jazz can be heard in the evening.

Several special offers will be available during the month at the “VinoVeka” bar-oenotheque (5 Kazansky Ul., T: 929 8298). From 7 to 14 February, a “warm-up” for Valentine’s Day, there will be a 20% discount on all rose wines, and on the day itself — a complimentary semifreddo dessert made to an original recipe. And on 23 February customers will receive a complimentary glass of wine when ordering any main course.

In a break from tradition, the musical accompaniment will be French and played on an accordion. The menu, in turn, will include some secret new delicacies with aphrodisiac ingredients (head chef Ravat Kushal). Incidentally, on 23 February “Tandoor” is offering a set of its homemade éclairs with five flavours: mango, caramel, pistachio, vanilla and blackcurrant) at the special price of 850 roubles.