

In the most "Dostoevsky" bar in St.Petersburg white nights will stay for a long time thanks to the special gastronomic concept menu in the traditions of XIX century.

Bar Nove has always been closely connected with Dostoevsky - due to its location and the unique atmosphere inside: the bar's symbol is the stony polished head of the writer and mustached Martha (Petrovna) guarding the secret room of the bar.

Now typical favorite dishes of Dostoevsky's contemporaries can be tasted at Nove

Open authentic cuisine of Fedor Dostoevsky's time – «White nights» set

Salad with pickled milk mushrooms, potato, onion and sour cream

Veal cheeks in sherry with mashed celery and caramelized beetroots

Glass of Russian home infusion "Klukovka"

Price per person

990₽

Петербургский
Ресторанный
Фестиваль

